

Belle Bunni Designs

Randi (she/her) of Belle Bunni Designs is an American cosplayer and fashion designer residing in west Michigan. Randi has been sewing for over 25 years now, and has been cosplaying since 2004. She is also currently attending Academy of Art University to obtain her bachelors in Fashion Product Development.

During her time as a cosplayer, seamstress, and artist, Randi has sought to be a role model for kindness and generosity. She regularly works with charities to help raise awareness and funding. Randi also volunteers her time in her community coaching on of the local robotics teams. On top of her solo cosplay content, she also runs her family's cosplay accounts and creates costumes for her husband, child, and their two dogs.

Randi has been a part of the convention community for the last 5 years as a hand made vendor, artist, and most recently cosplay guest, and has been attending anime and comic cons since 2004. She has presented panels, judged cosplay contests, and ran her booth in the vendor hall.
